

PONTIFICIA
UNIVERSITÀ
GREGORIANA

Cardinal Bea Centre
for Judaic Studies

2020-2021 Brenninkmeijer-Werhahn Guest Professor at the
Pontifical Gregorian University in Rome

In the context of the ongoing exchange program between the Hebrew University of Jerusalem through its Center for the Study of Christianity, and the Pontifical Gregorian University in Rome through its Cardinal Bea Centre for Judaic Studies, the position of a Guest Professor in Judaic Studies at the Gregorian University is now available for the Academic Year 2020-2021.

The successful candidate is expected to teach one full course of 24 hours (3 ECTS) for graduate students, over a six-week period between 15 February and 26 March, 2021.

The course should be given in the field of the History of the Jewish People (or eventually the History of Jewish Culture) in the Modern or Contemporary Periods. The exact choice of the period can be freely decided by the Professor. The course will be given in English.

The Pontifical Gregorian University is distinguished by its international character with professorial staff and students coming from over 130 countries around the world. Gifted by the presence of such diversity, which includes students from different religious backgrounds, the Cardinal Bea Centre's unique perspective is dedicated to the promotion of a theological knowledge and understanding of Judaism - from both a Jewish and a Christian perspective - as well as the teaching, research and academic exchanges between Christians and Jews, in order to foster a mutually enriching relationship.

The position includes a stipend of Euro 7.000,00 as well as travel and housing expenses of up to Euro 3.000,00. All payments are exempt from Italian taxation.

Letters of application, including a Curriculum Vitae and a course proposal (title and description of 800 characters), are due by 16 March, 2020. A decision will be announced by 7 April, 2020.
