Postdoctoral Research Fellowship 2013-2014

The Center for the Study of Christianity at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem invites applications for a postdoctoral research fellowship in one of the following areas of study:

- * New Testament, Early Christianity, its literature and Jewish context
- * Eastern Christianity
- * Christianity in Palestine/Eretz-Israel (in all fields and throughout its entire history)
- * Jewish-Christian relations

What the CSC is offering:

The successful candidate will be awarded for one year (or 6 months), beginning on 1 September 2013:

A grant of $2000 per month

Travel expenses

Library privileges at the Hebrew University

The postdoctoral fellow is expected to pursue her/his own research and publications, and to participate in the ongoing academic activities of the CSC. The fellow will be expected to deliver one or two lectures about her/his own research, and to be present in the Hebrew University for the duration of the fellowship. The fellowship requires residence in Jerusalem.

Candidates should have received their Ph.D. degree after 1 July 2009 and before 1 July 2013 at the latest, from an institution other than the Hebrew University.

Applications:

1. A letter of interest
2. Curriculum vitae
3. A list of publications
4. A research project description (about two pages in length)
5. Two letters of recommendation (one from her/his Ph.D. supervisor)
6. An official copy of her/his Ph.D. degree certificate or Ph.D. submission

Please email your application to the secretary of the CSC, Irina Kaminsky:
