

PONTIFICIA
UNIVERSITÀ
GREGORIANA

Cardinal Bea Centre for Judaic Studies

2019-2020 Brenninkmeijer-Werhahn Visiting Teacher at the
Pontifical Gregorian University in Rome

In the context of the ongoing exchange program between the Hebrew University of Jerusalem through its Center for the Study of Christianity, and the Pontifical Gregorian University in Rome through its Cardinal Bea Centre for Judaic Studies, the position of a Visiting Teacher in Judaic Studies at the Gregorian University is now available for the Academic Year 2019-2020.

The successful candidate is expected to teach one full course of 24 hours (3 ECTS) for graduate students, over a six-week period between 20 April and 28 May, 2020. The course can be in two subject matters. Priority will be given to a course in the field of Jewish History (History of the Jewish People), presenting either the Medieval Period or the Entrance into Modernity. If this field cannot be covered, another possibility would be a course on Kabbalah and Jewish Mysticism. The course will be given in English.

The Pontifical Gregorian University is distinguished by its international character with professorial staff and students coming from over 130 countries around the world. Gifted by the presence of such diversity, which includes students from different religious backgrounds, the Cardinal Bea Centre's unique perspective is dedicated to the promotion of a theological knowledge and understanding of Judaism - from both a Jewish and a Christian perspective - as well as the teaching, research and academic exchanges between Christians and Jews, in order to foster a mutually enriching relationship.

The position includes a stipend of Euro 6.000,00 as well as travel and housing expenses of up to Euro 3.000,00. All payments are exempt from Italian taxation.

Letters of application, including a Curriculum Vitae and a course proposal (title and description of 800 characters), are due by February 28, 2019. A decision will be announced by March 28, 2019.
